MUR 4012

Attn: Mark T. Kim

As a volunteer in the Richard Lewis For Congress Campaign, and an attendee at numerous meetings, I can unequivocally state that at no time did Frank Simon, and or any of his staff try to influence or offer any input or try to influence any of the supporters working in the Lewis campaign.

Furthermore, once the tabloid (Congressional Candidate Report) appeared Richard Lewis very emphatically stated that the said tabloid was not to be distributed as a part of his campaign.

I was never a paid member of the Lewis campaign, and feel that Mr. Lewis conducted his campaign on a very high level, I am not aware of any wrong-doing.

Knowing both Richard Lewis and Frank Simon I can absolutely attest to the fact they are both fine Christian gentlemen, and would not, under any circumstance compromise their Christian and moral principles under any circumstance.
